The Poet's Corner

This weeks poem is by Bee Spit (Janet)

Spring

Gone is the dark, dull of winter
Coming of the bright, fair spring
Sky yields rain and gentle thunder
Encouraging earths awakening

Bursting buds on flower and tree
Beginning a new season
Song of bird and buzz of bee
Full of purpose and reason

In me a parallel transformation
Opening eyes to let in lifes beauty
Aches dissolving as in erosion
Exposing the me that I should be.

Announcements:

The Bandit is a Bi-monthly publication, and will be out the first and third week each month. If you have an article you would like to run please have it to the publications desk in the ASBG office at least three days before it will run. Thank You.

If you want to become more involved in things around the campus please feel free to stop in at the ASBG office and let us know.

If you have lost something this term, please come into the ASBG office and see if it was turned in. We will donate all items not claimed by the end of this term.

What's Happening On Campus?

Well, the ASBG Bar-B-Q and elections are over and it's time to move on. We hope everyone had a good time with the Karaoke. This is just one of the events sponsored by the ASBG office. If you would like to see something else happen on campus as an activity please stop in at the ASBG office in the basement floor of Patriot Hall (near Maxine's) and let us know. We are always looking for new ideas.

Graduation Rehearsal:

The graduation rehearsal is scheduled for June 8th at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds, beginning at 5:30 pm. Caps, gowns, and regalia will be handed out at this time. If you are unable to attend this rehearsal, please contact Lois Tivey in Student Services (TOWLER 200).

General Aviation Poster Contest:

Cash prizes and the chance to prepare a work sample are the incentives for a student poster contest to be judged during "The Revolution in General Aviation," a conference will to be held June 14-16 on the campus of Oregon State University. General aviation refers to all aviation other than military and the airlines.

The poster session, which will take place at the La Sells Stewart Center on campus, is open to full-time college students, who should bring their completed poster with them to the conference. Participants will be given an area six feet wide by four feet high to display their work. Pre-assembled posters, large single-spaced posters, or individual sheets can be mounted in the poster area where they will be judged.

Topics for the posters include: current and future developments in general aviation aircraft design; general aviation avionics; human factors in general aviation; general aviation and training; general aviation airports; general aviation and rural development; general aviation and economic development; general aviation careers; and general aviation in congested airspace.

Awards of $250/$150/$100 will be offered in each of two categories: lower division undergraduates (first and second year), and upper division undergraduates and graduate students. Each school may nominate up to four student presenters for free conference registration (including two dinners and one luncheon). The number of awards will be determined by conference space and budget. People interested in the contest should contact David M. Hamby at the OSU Department of Nuclear Engineering for more information. E-Mail: Hambydm@ne.orst.edu. Or telephone: 541-737-8682.

LIVES IN TRANSITION

Destiny Fund

Somewhere, in a well-groomed cemetary, in a grave without a headstone, a tiny baby who changed 29 lives will be young forever. She was our "little angel" and we of the Lives in Transition Program are working to purchase a headstone for this small one. Many in this community, as well as here at Clatsop Community College, we feel can relate to a loss such as this. We have held bake sales, petitioned community leaders, and now we are reaching out to our college friends and family to help us. No amount is too small and anything you could contribute would be a blessing. Help us help our "Angel".

OREGON PACIFIC AHEC

Dear Health and Social Service Provider:

The Oregon Pacific Area Health Education Center (OPAHEC) would like to introduce you to the Clatsop County AIDS Coalition. The AIDS Coalition's mission is to develop, maintain, and advocate for a competent, culturally appropriate, HIV prevention and service delivery system for Clatsop County. The AIDS Coalition offers a variety of programs and services to Clatsop County.

The AIDS Coalition is involved in a model rural HIV/AIDS regional network with several other HIV/AIDS prevention Community Based Organizations (CBOs) within OPAHEC's eight county region, which includes Lincoln, Tillamook, Yamhill, Polk, Clatsop, Columbia, Linn, and Benton Counties. This network is funded through a grant from the Oregon Health Division and the Oregon Community Foundation, with additional funding provided by OPAHEC. The purpose of the network is to establish a regional programs and infrastructure to support the development of the CBO that provide HIV/AIDS prevention and outreach services to high-risk populations.

Tom Wynn, the Executive Director of the AIDS Coalition, is interested in talking with you about the services the AIDS Coalition provides in Clatsop County, which includes making speakers available to community organizations and promoting knowledge about the disease. If you are not familiar with the AIDS Coalition, we encourage you to contact Tom at (503) 366-2839. If you are a health care or social service provider and would like to find out more about becoming a part of the AIDS Coalition as a Board Member, please contact Tom.

The AIDS Coalition is a non-profit organization and accepts contributions to provide education and support programs. If you would like to provide financial support to the AIDS Coalition, please send your check payable to the Clatsop County AIDS Coalition, Number 10 6th Street, Suite 209, Astoria, OR 97103.

Thank you for contacting Tom and supporting the AIDS Coalition and the regional network. I have enclosed a copy of the network's newsletter "Collaborations," which Tom is editor of.

Sincerely yours,

Earlean Wilson Huey

Cultural Diversity Training!!!!!

You are cordially invited to attend a training in cultural diversity sponsored by Oregon Pacific Area Health Education Center, the Multicultural HIV/AIDS Alliance of Oregon, and the Oregon Health Division. Health and social service providers interested in HIV/AIDS education, prevention, and outreach are especially encouraged to attend.

The training will be very interactive to ensure that people leave with a clear sense of why cultural competency is vital to public health.

What will be covered in this interactive training?

- Celebrating and understanding diversity
- Cross cultural communication
- Outreach to communities of color

When and where will it be?

May 12th from 8:30 to 5:00 at the Grace Episcopal Church in Astoria

How do I sign up?

Contact Alfie Linn of MHAAO at (503) 408-6993 if you are interested in participating or if you have specific topics you would like to see included.

Special thanks to the Clatsop County AIDS Coalition for brining this training to the area!
